CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property listed in this catalogue will be offered and sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The word "Galleries", wherever used in these Conditions of Sale, means the Parke-Bernet Galleries, Inc.
2. The Galleries has exercised reasonable care to catalogue and describe correctly the property to be sold, but it does not warrant the correctness of description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of said property.
3. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale, all bids are to be for a single article even though more than one article is included under a numbered item in the catalogue. If, however, the articles under any one numbered item are designated as a "Lot" then bids are to be for the lot irrespective of the number of articles described in such item.
4. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer may, in his discretion, determine who is the successful bidder, and his decision shall be final; or the auctioneer may reoffer and resell the article in dispute.
5. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance over the previous bid, may be rejected by the auctioneer, in his discretion, if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.
6. The name and address of the buyer of each article, or lot, shall be given to the Galleries immediately following the sale thereof, and payment of the whole purchase price, or such part thereof as the Galleries may require, shall be immediately made by the purchaser thereof. If the foregoing condition, or any other applicable condition herein, is not complied with, the sale may, at the option of the Galleries, be cancelled, and the article, or lot, reoffered for sale.
7. Unless the sale is advertised and announced as an unrestricted sale, or a sale without reserve, consignors reserve the right to bid.
8. Except as herein otherwise provided, title will pass to the highest bidder upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's sole risk and responsibility.
9. Articles sold and not paid for in full and not taken by noon of the day following the sale may be turned over by the Galleries to a carrier to be delivered to a storehouse for the account and risk of the purchaser, and at his cost. If the purchase price has not been so paid in full, the Galleries may either cancel the sale, and any partial payment already made shall thereupon be forfeited as liquidated damages, or it may resell the same, without notice to the buyer and for his account and risk, and hold him responsible for any deficiency.

10. If for any cause whatsoever any article sold cannot be delivered, or cannot be delivered in as good condition as the same may have been at the time of sale, the sale will be cancelled, and any amount that may have been paid on account of the sale will be returned to the purchaser.
11. Unless purchased for resale, the buyer will be required to pay the Federal Excise Tax equivalent to 20 per centum of the price for which sold on jewelry, clocks, silver, gold, furs, etc. However, articles of these categories sold for certain classes of consignors are exempt from this tax. Items in this catalogue subject to the Federal Excise Tax are designated by an asterisk (*).
12. Unless exempt from the payment thereof, the buyer will also be required to pay the New York City sales tax of 2 per centum of the price for which all articles are sold.
13. The Galleries, subject to these Conditions of Sale and to such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, but without charge for its services, will undertake to make bids for responsible parties approved by it. Requests for such bidding must be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding as to the amount to be bid and must state the catalogue number of the item and the name or title of the article to be bid on. If bids are to be made on several articles listed as one item in the catalogue, the request should state the amount to be bid on each article, unless the item contains the notation "Lot", in which case the request should state the amount to be bid "For the Lot". The Galleries reserves the right to decline to undertake to make such bids.
14. The Galleries will facilitate the employment of carriers and packers by purchasers but will not be responsible for the acts of such carriers or packers in any respect whatsoever.
15. These Conditions of Sale cannot be altered except in writing by the Galleries or by public announcement by the auctioneer at the time of sale.

The chairs bear indications that the arms have been removed and the feet reduced. (Van Rensselaer-Dayton)

Note: These fine early Chippendale chairs, c. 1765, are apparently by the same maker as the example (No. 72) in the Exhibition of New York State Furniture, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, 1934, with eagle-head arm terminals which belonged to the patroon Stephen Van Rensselaer, and came from the Manor House, Albany. A side chair from this set is in the Karolik Collection in the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Mass., illustrated and described (fig. 87, p. 150) in Edwin J. Hipkiss, Eighteenth-Century American Arts, 1941. The one variation in the fine design and carved details of the present chair occurs in the more elaborately pierced lower portion of the splat.

355. IMPORTANT CHIPPENDALE MAHOGANY SECRETARY CHEST-ON-CHEST WITH CLAW-AND-BALL FEET New York, N. Y., XVIII Century

The upper chest section with ogee- and cove-molded cornice, over canted and fluted stiles with chamfered stops, flanking three small and three long drawers, the underbody with matching stiles and four long drawers, the uppermost with fall front opening to a writing surface, arcaded pigeonholes and a bank of small drawers; the drawers all finished with overlapping thumb moldings, fitted with willow brasses and bail handles, and contained within a fine interior construction incorporating recessed partitions, or dust boards; on molded base with scrolled ogee brackets and four claw-and-ball feet. Fine rich tawny color. (Van Rensselaer-Dayton) Height 6 feet 7 inches; width 50½ inches

1600 — Note: This choice example of early American cabinetmaking exemplifies the conveyance of English design and methods of construction in New York work during the period c. 1760. The admirable proportions and the use of partitions, or dust boards, between the drawers evince English training in an emigré craftsman. This is further borne out by the rich tawny tone of the faded surfaces, indicating the retention of English methods of varnish finishing. The use of the two sets of canted and fluted pilasters is unusual and particularly attractive; the handsome and vigorous claw-and-ball feet, typical of New York work, recall those of the fine New York 'bureau table' in the Karolik collection in the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

358. RARE DIRECTOIRE SCENIC WALLPAPER

French, circa 1800

Plaisirs de la Ville et de la Campagne, probably by Dufour. Printed in rich warm tones of sepia; depicting a continuous wooded landscape with monuments and building along waterways, showing figures of men and women in costumes of the period, equestrians, boatmen, farmers, and groups of romantic youths and maids, and musicians. Mounted on canvas; the upper portion extended fifteen inches in height. With approximately fifty running feet of old border. (McGrew)

Height 7 feet 5 inches; total length 50 feet 9 inches

Note: The name of Joseph Dufour, who was established in Paris at 10 rue Beauveau, in 1807, is associated in wallpaper fame with that of Zuber. Dufour, however, produced many sets of scenic papers previous to 1830, while his confrère executed but one. Dufour's papers were "undoubtedly the most popular scenic papers in America". See Nancy McClelland, Historic Wallpaper, passim.

363. FINE WILLIAM AND MARY WALNUT 'OYSTERWOOD' AND MARQUETRY FALL-FRONT WRITING CABINET ON STAND English, Late XVII Century
Cabinet with molded cornice and pulvinar frieze drawer over a fall front with inner leather-lined easel rest, enclosing pigeonholes and small drawers surrounding a central cupboard with three recessed olivewood drawers; the stand with single long drawer, and ash spiraled baluster legs, joined by a flat serpentine enclosed stretcher, finished with globular feet. The two front and inner cupboard door inlaid with marquetry of tinted woods and bone, floral ornament, urns and cornucopias of blossoms, within light wood bandings and oysterwood surrounds; matching oysterwood-paneled inner drawers.
(Conn. Private Collector) Height 5 feet 1 inch; width 43 inches

Note: The fall-front scrutoire was introduced during the reign of Charles II as the first form of English writing cabinet, in which the earlier models were supported on turned stands. The design of the present example indicates the perfected development of this form during the William and Mary period, a date confirmed by the use of fine dovetailing and drawer partitioning. The fall front of the cabinet section is reproduced by R. W. Symonds, English Furniture From Charles II to George II, 1929, fig. 45, to illustrate this type of English marquetry, confined within shaped panel borders and oyster pieces.
